MAGISTRATE JUDGE VALDEZ

COUNT ONE

The SPECIAL JANUARY 2020 GRAND JURY charges:

1. At times material to this superseding indictment:

a. The State of Illinois was a government that received in excess of $10,000 in federal benefits during the period from November 1, 2018 through October 31, 2019. The legislative branch of the State of Illinois was the Illinois General Assembly, which consisted of the Illinois House of Representatives and the Illinois Senate.

b. Defendant LUIS ARROYO was an Illinois State Representative. ARROYO owed a duty of honest services to the people of Illinois. As an elected official, ARROYO was required by law to annually file with the Illinois Secretary of State a "Statement of Economic Interests," which would disclose, among other things, certain income received by ARROYO during the prior calendar year. An elected official who filed a Statement of Economic Interests was required to verify that the information contained in the filing was true, correct, and complete.

c. Defendant JAMES T. WEISS was a manager of Collage LLC (“Collage”), a company involved in the sweepstakes gaming industry.

d. State Senator A was an Illinois State Senator and owed a duty of honest services to the people of Illinois. Unbeknownst to ARROYO and WEISS, State Senator A was cooperating with law enforcement authorities.

e. Spartacus 3 LLC (“Spartacus”) was a company controlled by ARROYO. Spartacus maintained a checking account at Chase Bank over which ARROYO was an authorized signer.

2. Beginning in or around 2018, and continuing until in or around October 2019, at Chicago, in the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, and elsewhere,

LUIS ARROYO and

defendants herein, knowingly devised, intended to devise, and participated in a scheme to defraud the people of Illinois of the intangible right to the honest services of ARROYO and State Senator A through bribery and to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, which scheme is further described below.

3. It was part of the scheme that ARROYO and WEISS agreed that WEISS would make bribe payments to Spartacus and State Senator A’s nominee, in exchange for ARROYO’s and State Senator A’s sponsorship of, votes on, and assistance with the enactment of legislation related to the sweepstakes industry, WEISS, and Collage.

4. It was further part of the scheme that, between on or about November 1, 2018 and on or about October 1, 2019, WEISS paid bribes to ARROYO in the form of checks issued by Collage and made payable to Spartacus.

5. It was further part of the scheme that, in order to conceal and avoid detection of the scheme, ARROYO did not report to the Illinois Secretary of State payments made to Spartacus by Collage.

6. It was further part of the scheme that, in exchange for bribes from WEISS, ARROYO: (a) agreed to vote for and promote legislation in the Illinois House of Representatives related to the sweepstakes industry; (b) promoted the enactment of legislation related to the sweepstakes industry by advising other members of the General Assembly, including State Senator A, in order to induce those people to sponsor and vote for the legislation; (c) promoted the enactment of legislation related to the sweepstakes industry by advising representatives of Illinois' Executive Branch in order to induce those people to support the enactment of the legislation; and (d) spoke in favor of the legislation during proceedings in the Illinois House of Representatives, including during a House committee hearing.

7. It was further part of the scheme that ARROYO and WEISS agreed to enlist State Senator A to promote the enactment of legislation related to the sweepstakes industry by offering State Senator A bribes in exchange for his sponsorship of, vote for, and promotion of legislation related to the sweepstakes industry in the Illinois Senate.

8. It was further part of the scheme that, on or about May 1, 2019, ARROYO caused to be filed with the Illinois Secretary of State his Statement of Economic Interests, falsely stating, "N/A," in response to the directive, "List the name of any entity doing business in the State of Illinois from which income in excess of $1,200 was derived during the preceding calendar year, other than for professional services . . . ."

9. It was further part of the scheme that, on or about August 2, 2019, ARROYO, in the presence of WEISS, asked State Senator A to promote the passage of legislation in the Illinois Senate related to the sweepstakes industry.

10. It was further part of the scheme that on or about August 2, 2019, ARROYO met separately with State Senator A and offered to have WEISS pay State Senator A bribes in exchange for State Senator A's sponsorship of, vote for, and promotion of legislation in the Illinois Senate related to the sweepstakes industry. ARROYO told State Senator A that bribe payments to State Senator A could be disguised as a monthly consultant payment to a third party (a "nominee") and confided that the bribe payments would be the "[s]ame way I'm getting paid, I'm getting paid twenty-five, twenty-five hundred dollars a month."

11. It was further part of the scheme that on or about August 22, 2019, ARROYO made a $2,500 bribe payment to State Senator A in the form of a check issued by Collage and made payable to State Senator A's nominee and told State Senator A that the payments would continue with a "check per month . . . six months to a year." ARROYO also provided State Senator A with proposed legislation related to the sweepstakes industry that ARROYO and WEISS wanted State Senator A to sponsor, vote for, and promote in the Illinois Senate.

12. It was further part of the scheme that, on or about August 22, 2019, WEISS sent State Senator A an email containing proposed legislation related to the sweepstakes industry and a second email providing an explanation of the proposed legislation.

13. It was further part of the scheme that, in or around October 2019, ARROYO and WEISS caused the preparation of a sham consulting contract between Collage and State Senator A's nominee for the purpose of concealing the bribe payments WEISS and ARROYO made and planned to make to State Senator A.

14. It was further part of the scheme that, on or about October 22, 2019, WEISS caused a package to be mailed to State Senator A that contained a $2,500 bribe payment in the form of a check issued by Collage and made payable to State Senator A's nominee, as well as a sham consulting agreement.

15. It was further part of the scheme that, on or about October 24, 2019, WEISS communicated to State Senator A that WEISS had sent a check to State Senator A at an address provided by ARROYO.

16. It was further part of the scheme that, on or about October 25, 2019, in order to conceal and avoid detection of the scheme, WEISS told federal law enforcement agents that he had spoken to State Senator A's nominee about the purported consulting agreement with Collage.

17. It was further part of the scheme that ARROYO and WEISS concealed, misrepresented, and hid and caused to be concealed, misrepresented, and hidden, the existence and purpose of the scheme and the acts done in furtherance of the scheme.

18. On or about May 3, 2019, in the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, and elsewhere,

JAMES T. WEISS,

defendants herein, for the purpose of executing the scheme, knowingly caused to be transmitted by wire communication in interstate commerce certain writings, signs, signals, and sounds, namely, data relating to the negotiation of check number 2088 in the amount of $7,500 issued by Collage and made payable to Spartacus, which wire communication was routed across state lines;
